

ORIGIN AND HISTORY

At some time in the unrecorded past, thousands of years ago, an area of some 2,400 square miles was dropped or depressed about 100 feet below the surface of a vast coastal plain. When underground movement jarred the plain upward, the sunken area rose and became what is now known as the Antelope Valley.

The Paiute Indians were the first known human inhabitants of the area. The first white visitors were most likely Spanish navy deserters, members of the Portola party traveling in the valley's vicinity in 1769. In pursuing these deserters, Lt. Pedro Fages, one of Spain's Catalonia volunteers, reached the southern end of the Antelope Valley in 1772. His diarist reports that Indians were seen lurking behind what were thought to be date palms, but were actually Joshua trees.

The year 1776 brought Father Francisco Garces and three Indian guides from the San Gabriel Mission. Garces recorded his views of the vast land that was then called El Tehon Rancheria, or the Badger Ranch, of the Cuabajoy Indians. In 1834, Kit Carson and Gen. John C. Fremont came through the valley and remained long enough to establish what is today known as Fort Tejon Road. Wildlife was so plentiful at that time that it was said three geese were killed with one shot at Lake Elizabeth. Grass and desert growth was luxuriant and pools of water stood in many places over the valley floor.

The first determined settlers chose the Lake Elizabeth region and the foothill of the Tehachapi Mountains. The general area became known as the Antelope Valley because of the immense herds of these animals. Yet, hunters and severe winters in the late 1800s decimated the herds.

The Southern Pacific Railroad, between San Francisco and Los Angeles, was completed in 1876 with the rails from Los Angeles having been placed as far inland as Soledad Canyon to the south of the valley. The frantic race between the two large opposing work forces ended with the ceremonial driving of the golden spike to join the rails and heralded the opening of the Antelope Valley to the outside world.

By 1890, the Antelope Valley was in a very prosperous condition, especially in the southern portion of Lancaster and Palmdale. Land seekers and settlers had come in large numbers. Many families with financial means settled in the eastern segment of the valley to begin raising grain and fruits and related agricultural products.

The year 1898 was a year of "firsts" for the valley. The previous year borax had been discovered in the United States, and in 1898 it was found that an immense deposit of borax lay beneath the desert landscape of the Antelope Valley. Within the same 12 months, gold was discovered in Rosamond. Men working the mines made their way across what was known then as Rodriguez Dry Lakebed, to and from work, on a V-shaped wagon rigged with sails.

The age of aviation came to the Antelope Valley in the 1930s when the Army Air Corps began training operations on the shores of the dry lakebed at the Muroc Bombing and Gunnery Range, now Edwards Air Force Base. During World War II, the dry lakebed "floated" a huge wooden battleship - the Muroc Maru - constructed to train bombardiers in the use of bombsites. Runways now bisect the lakebed.

Today the Antelope Valley has learned to successfully blend the traditional pursuits of business, commerce, industry, agriculture and mining with the technology of the aerospace frontier, while remaining a place where people prefer to live and visitors return time and time again. This high desert area is known for its contributions to the defense of the nation with its close proximity to existing Department of Defense facilities, including Edwards, Air Force Plant 42 and China Lake Naval Weapons Center.

VALLEY LOCATION

The Antelope Valley, one of many valleys in the Mojave Desert, is bordered by the San Gabriel Mountains to the south, the Tehachapi Mountains to the west, the greater Mojave Desert to the north and Victor Valley to the east. Rosamond, Mojave, California City, Boron and the greater part of Edwards lie in Kern County in the northern part of the valley. Lancaster, Palmdale, Quartz Hill, Littlerock and the southern most sliver of Edwards lie in Los Angeles County in the southern and central part of the valley. The eastern part of the valley falls within San Bernardino County.

COMMUNITY PROFILES

Boron, Calif.

Population: 4,471

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 23

Elected official: Chamber of Commerce president, Randy Smith

School system: Muroc Unified School District, (661) 258-4178

Chamber of Commerce: 26962 Twenty Mule Team Road, Boron, Calif., 93516, (760) 762-5810

Web address: www.nnrs.com/20MuleTeam

*Located northeast of Edwards along California State Highway 58, the community of Boron is the site of a giant open-pit mine from which the extracted element, borax, lends the town its name. The pit, the largest in the Western Hemisphere, is owned and operated by the U.S. Borax and Chemical Corporation and employs a great deal of the community. Edwards employs the remainder. The town is also home of the Col. Vernon P. Saxon Jr. Aerospace Museum.

The town's people tuck themselves into the preservation of the rich history of both Boron and Edwards. Kern County provides the community's branch library, fire station and sheriff department. The U.S. Post Office is centrally located on Boron Avenue.

California City, Calif.

Population: 11,500

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 17

Elected official: Mayor Larry Adams

School system: Mojave Unified School District, (661) 824-4001

Chamber of Commerce: 8001 California City Blvd., California City, Calif., 93505, (760) 373-8676

Web address: www.city.california-city.ca.us

*Begun as a private commercial development, the community was incorporated in 1965 and ranks as the third largest incorporated city in terms of land area in California.

Located northwest of the base along Highway 58 and a northern jaunt on California City Boulevard, the small community offers all the enhancements of the original developer's grand vision: easy shopping, an 18-hole golf course and a central park offering swimming, boating, fishing, illuminated tennis courts, basketball and volleyball courts, picnic facilities, barbecue pits, children's playgrounds and a marina facility.

CHURCHES

Nearly all faiths and denominations are represented in the Antelope Valley area. Local chambers of commerce listed on the following pages can provide detailed information.

Chamber of Commerce: 554 W. Lancaster Blvd., Lancaster, Calif., 93534, (661) 948-4518

Web address: www.cityoflancasterca.org

*A thriving, civic-spirited community, Lancaster has enjoyed unprecedented growth and prosperity in the last decade. During this time, Lancaster has grown to be the commercial and business center of the Antelope Valley and promises to continue such growth.

With proximity to the Los Angeles metropolitan area and yet clean air and blue skies, the community is an affordable choice conveniently located to much of Southern California's attractions and aerospace industry employment. Lancaster has a council-manager/administer form of government with five elected council members and 230 full-time employees. All public safety services, including police and fire, are provided by the County of Los Angeles, while the sheriff's department performs contract-based services, and the fire department performs under a Fire Protection District approach.

Mojave, Calif.

Population: 3,863

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 35

Elected official: Unincorporated

School system: Mojave Unified School District, (661) 824-4001

Chamber of Commerce: (661) 824-2481 or call the Kern Economic Development Corporation at (661) 862-5150)

Web address: www.mojave.ca.us

*Mojave sits at the junction of California Highways 14 and 58 and to some is a gateway to such popular spots as Mammoth and the Eastern Sierras, Las Vegas, Eastern Mojave Desert and to the Los Angeles Basin. But Mojave itself is the location of several natural wonders and historical sites that include mining ghost towns and more.

Anyone driving through Mojave is certain to notice the Mojave Airport. Known to many as the civilian flight test center and the launching spot of SpaceShipOne, the airport is unique in its locale and environmental conditions and is known both for its flight test activities and for the maintenance and storage services provided to the airline industry.

North Edwards, Calif.

Population: 1,343

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 9

Elected official: none

School system: Muroc Joint Unified School District, (661) 258-4001

*North Edwards is an unincorporated bedroom community just north of Edwards along Highway 58. School-age children go to school at Edwards. Housing is affordable, though shopping convenience is limited.

Palmdale, Calif.

Population: 131,295

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 39

Elected official: Mayor James Ledford Jr.

School systems: Antelope Valley Union High School District (high schools), (661) 948-7655; Palmdale School District (elementary and junior high schools), (661) 947-7191; Westside School District (elementary and junior high schools), (661) 948-2669

Chamber of Commerce: 817 E. Avenue Q-9, Palmdale, Calif. 93550, (661) 273-3232

Web address: www.cityofpalmdale.org

*Palmdale's biggest industry, and employer, is aerospace. Thousands of residents are employed at Air Force Plant 42 Production Flight Test Installation and Edwards Air Force Base.

Plant 42 is a huge complex including more than eight million square feet of covered space. Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Co., Northrop Grumman and The Boeing Co. have billions of dollars in aerospace projects there. Producers, manufacturers, wholesalers, government and business services comprise 76 percent of the city's employment force. Natural resources also provide employment in the fields of sand, gravel, rock and cement production. The film industry finds Palmdale's high desert locations very attractive and spends millions of dollars here annually.

A community of 131,295 residents, Palmdale has a civic foundation in the Larry Chimbole Cultural Center, Palmdale Playhouse and Poncitlan Square, a park fashioned after one in Poncitlan, Mexico, Palmdale's sister city.

Quartz Hill, Calif.

Population: 16,984

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 35

Elected officials: none

School system: Westside School District, (661) 722-0716

Chamber of Commerce: 42043 50th Street West, Quartz Hill, Calif., 93536, (661) 722-4811

Web address: www.quartzhillchamber.org

*Quartz Hill, a small, primarily residential, unincorporated community, is situated just four and a half square-miles west of Lancaster and Palmdale. Residents enjoy the rustic qualities of the town with horseback riding on many trails, fishing in the nearby California Aqueduct and a view of nature. The community is known for its almond orchards and the annual almond festival parade.

Rosamond, Calif.

Population: 14,950

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 19

Elected official: Mayor Jed Dyke

School system: Southern Kern Unified School District, (661) 256-5000

Chamber of Commerce: 2861 Diamond Street, Rosamond, Calif., 94560, (661) 256-3248

Web address: www.avchambers.com

*Just a straight shot west of Edwards along Rosamond Boulevard, the small community of Rosamond is a mecca for rockhounds with its cradling and abundant hillside landscape of beautiful rocks – especially at Gem Hill, located four miles north of the community.

Kern County provides fire and police protection in addition to supporting a community recreation building and park with a lighted baseball diamond. Agriculture pertinent to the area includes alfalfa, sugar beets, potatoes and onions. The community also hosts a community/senior center.

Tehachapi, Calif.

Population: 32,643

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 45

Elected official: Mayor Phil Smith

School system: Tehachapi Unified School District, (661) 822-2100

Chamber of Commerce: P.O. Box 401, Tehachapi, Calif., 93581, (661) 822-4180

Web address: www.tehachapi.com

*Located in the mountains about 45 miles from the base and about 4,000 feet above sea level, Tehachapi offers a cool alternative to the warm Mojave Desert summers.

Tehachapi has a rural atmosphere with farming as a way of life for many residents. Award-winning livestock are common in the area as well as famous apples, pears and cherries.

Area residents visit Tehachapi year round for the Mountain Festival, the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association Rodeo in August, the apple and pumpkin harvest in the fall and the cool mountain breezes in the summer.

Victorville, Calif.

Population: 77,881

Miles from Air Force Flight Test Center Headquarters Bldg.: 55

Elected official: Mayor Terry Caldwell

School system: Victor Valley Union High School District, (760) 955-3200; Victor Elementary School District, (760) 245-1691

Chamber of Commerce: P.O. Box 997, Victorville, Calif., 92392, (760) 245-6506

Web address: www.vvchamber.com

*Located to the east of Edwards in the high desert of Victor Valley, Victorville is accessible via interstates 15 and 395, conveniently linking the city with all other areas of Southern California.

The community encompasses approximately 68 square miles and has experienced an annual growth in population of nearly 19 percent.

Shopping

*Lancaster and Palmdale provide base personnel extensive shopping opportunities. Both feature virtually every national and regional retail store, making it unnecessary to travel outside the Antelope Valley for most goods and services.

Lancaster's main shopping area is located on Valley Central Way just off California State Highway 14 at exits for either avenue I or J, about 30 minutes from base housing. Palmdale's primary shopping area is anchored by the Antelope Valley Mall, the area's only covered shopping mall, located on West Avenue P, just off the California State Highway 14 at the exit for 10th Street, about 40 minutes from base housing.

Also popular are the outlet stores in Barstow, located one hour west of the base off California State Highway 58, and in Ontario, about one and a half hours south of the base near the intersections of interstate highways 10 and 15.

Large mall complexes in the Los Angeles area are one to two hours away via California State Highway 14.
